The United States of America,

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas James McC Reynolds of St Louis Missouri, has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at La Porte whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said James McC Reynolds, according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 2d of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the West half of the South East quarter of section twenty, in Township Thirtieth four, North of Range five West, of the second Meridian, in the District of Indiana, subject to sale at La Porte, Indiana, containing eighty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been pur= chased by the said James McC Reynolds.

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said James McC Reynolds, and to his heirs, the said tract above described:
To have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances of whatever nature, heretofore belonging, unto the said
James McC Reynolds, and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, Martin Van Buren.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the ~~fourth~~ ^{14th} day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and of the Independence of the United States the ~~thirty~~ ^{forty} of 1836.

By the President Martin Van Buren.
