The United States of America,

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas Robert Starkweather, of Greene County, New York, has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at La Porte whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Robert Starkweather, according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the South West quarter of Section Thirty Three, in Township Thirty Seven, Range five West, in The District of Lands subject to sale at La Porte, Indiana, containing one hundred and sixty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said Robert Starkweather.

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant unto the said Robert Starkweather,

To have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances of whatever nature, thereunto belonging, unto the said
Robert Starkweather, and to his heirs, the said tract above described.

and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, Martin Van Buren

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the ~~thirtieth~~ day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven and of the Independence of the United States the ~~sixty~~, first.

By the President: Martin Van Buren
